KIMMEL CENTER AND THE LOGAN, PHILADELPHIA’S HOTEL ANNOUNCE NEW PARTNERSHIP FOR LATE NIGHT AT THE LOGAN SERIES

Kimmel Center Broadway Philadelphia Attendees Invited to Exclusive Cast Parties at The Logan Hotel

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (Philadelphia, PA, November 21, 2016) — The Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts and The Logan Hotel are proud to announce a new partnership to present a new season-long series of post-show events following Broadway Philadelphia performances and with themed food and cocktails specific to each show. Late Night at The Logan will consist of a series of free after-parties during which all ticket-buyers for that show will have the opportunity to mix and mingle with the cast of the performance they’ve just seen. The series will launch with the first cast party taking place on November 23, following a performance of the 2016–17 Broadway Philadelphia opener, An American in Paris. More details on the series can be found at kimmelcenter.org/logan.

“We are thrilled to announce this new partnership that will give our subscribers access to the cast of the shows they have just seen in one of Philadelphia’s most trendy hotels,” said Anne Ewers, President & CEO of the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts. “Not only is this partnership a fantastic celebration for the start of our season, but a wonderful way for us to say ‘thank you’ to some of our most dedicated patrons.”

“It’s been an incredible first year for us in Philadelphia and this partnership with the performing arts community is a natural fit for our hotel’s rich culture and dedication to the arts,” states Greg Stafford, General Manager, The Logan. “We thrive on engaging with locals in addition to our hotel guests so this is a perfect way to extend our existing Live the Logan program which features lifestyle and art events throughout the year.”

This unique benefit is available to all ticket-buyers following one select performance of each of the 12 Broadway Philadelphia shows. Themed drink and food specials will be available for purchases at each event. Individual dates for upcoming Late Night at The Logan events can be found below:

The Shubert Organization

For more than 100 years, The Shubert Organization has been in the forefront of the American theatre. Under the leadership of Philip J. Smith, Chairman, and Robert E. Wankel, President, the Shubert Organization owns and operates 17 Broadway theatres and six Off-Broadway venues, as well as the Forrest Theatre in Philadelphia. The company has produced and co-produced hundreds of plays and musicals, including the original Broadway production of CATS, Dreamgirls, Sunday in the Park with George, Amadeus, The Real Thing, The Grapes of Wrath, Equus, The Elephant Man, The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Hedwig and the Angry Inch, School of Rock The Musical, and The Humans. The Shubert Organization is proud of its ongoing refurbishment program for its theatres, seeking to preserve the historic character while modernizing them to accommodate the needs of today's audiences.

About The Logan, Philadelphia's Hotel

The Logan takes inspiration from the rebels and freethinkers who put Philadelphia on the map, pairing cosmopolitan culture and artistic sensibility with customized experiences. Opened in December 2015 and located in the center of Philadelphia's art and cultural district, The Logan shines as the new symbol of independent hospitality in Philadelphia. Guests can spend a day indulging at the spa, savoring the sunlight in the expansive courtyard, socializing with locals in The Commons or nine floors above the city at Assembly Rooftop Lounge. Capturing today's lifestyle and energy, The Logan offers guests and locals a contemporary sense of place surrounded by local artwork and modern furnishings. The Logan is part of the Curio Collection by Hilton. For more information on The Logan, visit www.theloganhotel.com or call 215.963.1500.
